

I think it is absolutely vital that satellite radio be allowed to continue in its present form. The services provided are important, and should not be hindered by NAB or anyone else.